

17th January 2019

Dear Parents

Next Friday 25th January we will have a visiting actor in school to support our topic on the Great Fire of London. He will be in character as Samuel Pepys the famous diarist for the day. This is a really good chance for children to understand what it was like to live through the fire and what it was like for people living in London at that time. They will take part in drama workshops and other fun activities throughout the day. In order for this to take place we need a contribution of £1.60 from each child.

So that children get the most out of the day we would like them to dress in clothes appropriate for the time. Poor children in Tudor times would have most likely been in dirty/ragged clothes. If possible could boys wear black trousers, white shirts and flat caps/hats. Girls could wear long black skirts, white tops and hats. Please do not feel you have to rush out and buy anything, old clothes could be cut up and made to look old/dirty etc.

Many thanks in advance, we know the children will have a great time.
