ART AND DESIGN CURRICULUM AT STEETON PRIMARY SCHOOL

INTENT

At Steeton Primary School, we see the importance art, design and creativity has for our pupils. The subject of art and design has a high profile at Steeton Primary School and we dedicate almost a full day every week to developing children's knowledge and skills in this subject, through our bespoke 'Magic Monday' curriculum. It is our intention that our pupils are not only exposed to many different mediums of expression in art and design but learn about inspiring artists, crafts persons and designers from the past and modern day and are able to reflect, imitate and create their own pieces of artwork, evaluating both their own, their peers and other artist's work.

The whole school art and design overview and progression of knowledge and skills means that the National Curriculum is taught in a sequenced way meaning children know more and remember more and can do more. Progression of knowledge and skills is outlined so that at the end of each phase is clear to all teachers. It is clear to see what children have learnt previously in the phase before and what they will be learning in the next phase of their art and design education. In order to promote maximum progression, we centred our art and design curriculum on the research-based approach of repeated concepts. The use of revisiting concepts both within the year and over the years means that knowledge is embedded and children make clear links in their learning and can develop their skills with more ease and accuracy. Our Magic Mondays link directly to our history and geography topics and we spend a whole half term developing our knowledge and skills of the different concepts. We want our children to become resilient and believe they are great artists, as we do. Children receive high quality academic learning experiences which is enriched with our 'Pupil Offer' which provides many rich and relevant experiences beyond the classroom.

IMPLEMENTATION

The art and design curriculum at our school is bespoke and has been designed for the children in our school to ensure the National Curriculum is covered in a logical way. We have worked closely with artist Emma Bairstow to develop a unique offer for our children. Each half term each phase works on specific skills and develops their knowledge as set out in our whole school overview. Each child in KS1 and KS2 has their own sketch book, which shows a clear progression of the skills they are developing for that half term. The skill development ends with a piece of art that the child will be proud of and we display as much of this artwork throughout our school buildings as possible. A selection of children each half term also work on a collaborative large piece of art that requires the same skills being developed for their individual piece but on a larger scale and means they can work together to support and encourage each other.

In EYFS, children develop their fine motor skills by having opportunities to use scissors, pencil crayons and paint brushes. Children develop these fine motor skills in KS1 and KS2 through drawing, painting, sculpting and using collage. They will explore and develop their artistic ideas and be able to evaluate their own art and work of other artists.

The whole school art and design overview is followed. each Magic Monday will focus on one or more of our four concepts:

DRAWING

EXPRESSION AND EVALUATION OF ART

Magic Monday lessons will combine increasing knowledge of the concept being taught through building upon previous learning, developing resilience of motor skills, alongside enriching the half termly topic.

IMPACT

At the end of each phase pupils will have had the opportunity to embed their developing artistic skills. Self-expression, creativity and enjoyment is at the heart of art and design and children look forward to Magic Mondays; it is seen as a high profile and important part of our school week. Pupils are proud of their art work and their sketch books and are able to talk about the progress they have made using their sketch books to help them. They place value on the whole process of developing skills and knowledge in Magic Mondays and not just the finished high-quality outcome. Children are reflective artists and are open and accepting of ways they can improve their work through evaluating both their own art and artwork of others. Children are resilient with developing their art skills and also take risks and experiment with different techniques and colour. Children will develop their own preferences of different ways art can be produced and be able to give reasons for using different techniques for different reasons using artistic vocabulary.

Children will have developed knowledge of a broad range of artists, crafts people and designers and be able to discuss work produced by them. Children's presentation, artwork and creativity in other lessons/exercise books reflect the skill they have developed in art and design. High quality outcomes are displayed proudly around school. Teachers assess children's learning in every lesson and give feedback, support and challenge where appropriate. Art and Design is discussed in Phase and Leadership Curriculum Impact Meetings and parents are kept informed of their child's progress at parents' evenings, through school reports and work is celebrated through School Ping.

ART AND DESIGN NATIONAL CURRICULUM AND EYFS STATUTORY FRAMEWORK

EYFS

We have selected the Early Learning Goals that link most closely to the Art and Design National Curriculum taught in the rest of the school. Level expected at the End of EYFS:

Expressive Arts and Design

Creating with Materials ELG:

- safely use and explore a variety of materials, tools and techniques, experimenting with colour, design, texture, form and function
- share their creations, explaining the process they have used
- make use of props and materials when role playing characters in narratives and stories

Physical Development

Fine Motor Skills ELG:

- hold a pencil effectively in preparations for fluent writing - using the tripod grip in almost all cases
- use a range of small tools, including scissors, paint, brushes and cutlery
- begin to show accuracy and care when drawing

KS1 National Curriculum

Pupils should be taught:

- to use a range of materials creatively to design and make products
- to use drawing, painting and sculpture to develop and share their ideas, experiences and imagination
- to develop a wide range of art and design techniques in using colour, pattern, texture, line, shape, form and space; about the work of a range of artists, craft makers and designers, describing the differences and similarities between different practices and disciplines, and making links to their own work

KS2 National Curriculum

Pupils should be taught:

- to develop their techniques, including their control and their use of materials, with creativity, experimentation and an increasing awareness of different kinds of art, craft and design
- to create sketch books to record their observations and use them to review and revisit ideas
- to improve their mastery of art and design techniques, including drawing, painting and sculpture with a range of materials [for example, pencil, charcoal, paint, clay]
- about great artists, architects and designers in history

The national curriculum for art and design aims to ensure that all pupils by the end of year 6:

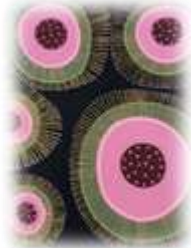

- produce creative work, exploring their ideas and recording their experiences
- become proficient in drawing, painting, sculpture and other art, craft and design techniques
- evaluate and analyse creative works using the language of art, craft and design
- know about great artists, craft makers and designers, and understand the historical and cultural development of their art forms
