

This half term's forest principle: opportunity

3rd November 2023
Autumn Term
Week 8

Our adventures at Steeton Primary School this week...

- A 'blink and you'll miss it' week! In assembly on Monday we discussed our forest principle for this half term - opportunity: its about looking for the positive in everything and making the most of each day. It's about taking a moment to appreciate friendships and how they make us feel. Opportunity makes anything possible!
- Each half term, we begin with science week. Miss Lafbery, our science leader, has been so impressed again with the knowledge and skills developed this week.
- It has been Halloween of course and children enjoyed a spooky-themed lunch. Reception enjoyed a spook-tastic disco in the afternoon. Thanks to the Mills family, who donated sweet cones for each child who attended the after-school disco. This allowed the money raised from the disco to be spent directly back into classrooms and not on disco treats.
- We are very proud of our sporting achievements at school. No-one more so than Mr. Shaw, who works tirelessly to provide top-notch PE lessons, competition opportunities for teams and after-school clubs. Unfortunately, Mr. Shaw cant be in more than one place at once! So, to ensure that everyone receives the same quality of provision when he is out and about, we have a new member of the team. Mr. Loftus - a qualified sports coach - has been shadowing Mr. Shaw for several weeks and will be taking lessons and fitness clubs in Mr. Shaw's absence.
- You will have received my ping earlier this week with the news about Miss Akram and her departure at the end of this half term. Miss Akram is such a shining star at Steeton and it is sad news for us. But there is much adventuring to be done by her and we hope to hear about it in the coming months.

REMINDER

It is bonfire night this weekend - stay in and have fun!
